ASSUMPTION STUDENT COUNCIL AND BLOCK REPRESENTATIVES SY 2015-2016
ORGANIZATION AND ASSOCIATION OFFICERS SY 2015-2016
Assumption College Educators’ Society (ACES)

ACES is a course-oriented organization, that aims to inspire and develop future educators through the various educational exposures and enriching activities that helps strengthen the passion of the students in their chosen field of study.

Psychological Society of the Assumption (PSA)

PSA aims to be the key that will further open the minds of its members towards awareness and understanding of human behaviour. It is a course-related organization that aims to give opportunities to Psychology students to enhance their knowledge and practice their acquired skills in psychology.
DWRA Radio Assumption

DWRA is the official Radio Station of the college, which aims to train Communication students in the field of professional broadcasting while inculcating and keeping high ethical and moral standards.

Studio

Studio is the official media organization of the college. It aims to expose and train its members in various media functions. The group also serves as the official organization that takes coverage and documents various college activities.
Young Communication Professionals of Assumption (YCPA)

YCPA is a course related organization that strives to develop the skills of Communication students and expose them in different communication-related professional settings.
BUSINESS CO-CURRICULAR ORGANIZATIONS

Assumption Integrated Marketing and Management Society (AIMMS)

AIMMS is the official co-curricular organization of Marketing and Management students of the college. It targets to expose the students early on into the nature of professional marketing and management, with the aim of enhancing their capabilities in the field for both local and international atmospheres.

International Business Society of the Assumption (IBSA)

IBES is the official co-curricular organization of International Business students of the college. It functions primarily to encourage the interest of the students in business ventures, and to promote awareness and development on business environments both locally and globally.
Entrepreneurial Society of Assumption (ESA)

ESA is the official co-curricular organization of Entrepreneurship students of the college. It targets to expose the students early on in the nature of putting up a business, with the aim of enhancing their leadership capabilities in managing a business globally.
Voices

Voices is the official singing group of the Assumption College. Members of the group are exposed in various genres of songs, and perform both in and out of the college for various occasions and concerts.

The Assumption Dance Company (TADC)

TADC is the official dance organization of Assumption College. It aims to expose and train its members in various dance styles and genres and to showcase their learning in various dance opportunities both in and outside the college.
SPECIAL INTEREST ORGANIZATIONS

Lumina

Lumina is an organization that focuses on artistic photography and is open to all college students. It aims to enhance the appreciation and skills in photography of the members.

Assumption College Athletic Organization (ACAO)

ACAO is the official organization of the athletes of the college. It is composed of the various students involved in different sports activities of the school.
Scholars and Grantees of the Assumption (SAGA)

SAGA is the official association of the academic, financial and athletic scholars of the college. It aims not only to guide the students in maintaining their scholarships but also to give opportunities for them to give back to the community and promote social awareness.

Assumption Debate League (ADL)

ADL is the official debate society of Assumption College that aims to train students in the art of logic, reasoning, public speaking and intellectual debate. This organization gives the students the opportunity to hone their analytical and communication skills.
ASSOCIATIONS

International Students of the Assumption (ISA)

ISA is composed of all non-Filipino students of the Assumption College. It aims to bring them together as they celebrate their own respective cultures, and help them to adjust to the new culture and environment as they stay in the Philippines.

Peer Facilitators Association (PFA)

Peers Facilitators Association consists of students who aim to support other Assumptionists in their college life and assist the Guidance Center in its testings, counselling, and other services.
Assumption Immediate Respondents (AIR)

AIR consists of students who aim to support the Center for Social Concern in responding for different calamities and nationwide disaster. They are also the volunteer arm of the college.

Assumption For Christ (AFC)

AFC helps in campus liturgical celebrations and is in charge of Marie Eugenie Month highlighted with the Music & ME Song Writing Contest.